

FERPA RELEASE AUTHORIZATION FORM

Division of Mission and Student Affairs at St. Norbert College
Office of Student Judicial Affairs

According to the U.S. Department of Education, “the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. §1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records (2007).” Student disciplinary files are not exempt from this law. The Office of Student Judicial Affairs has a responsibility to protect and maintain your confidential student information, including your disciplinary record. In order for the Office of Student Judicial Affairs to be able to release any information pertaining to your disciplinary record to another individual besides yourself, you must provide our office with written and signed documentation that indicates your consent to the release by completing the form below.

I understand that:

1. I have the right not to consent to the release of my educational records;
2. I have the right to decide what information may and may not be released;
3. This consent shall remain in effect until revoked by me, in writing, and delivered to the above-named office to whom this release is granted, but that such revocation shall not affect disclosures previously made by the above-named office prior to receipt of any such written revocation.
